2. 2017 Joint Notice of Proposed Boundary Adjustment and Public Hearing for the Salt Lake City Mosquito Abatement District and Salt Lake City:

- Explanation of Proposed Boundary Adjustments:

Manager Faraji briefly recapped the reasons for this meeting: SLCMAD's taxing boundaries have been the same as Salt Lake City's actual city boundaries back in 1923. Salt Lake City has grown, as have the areas receiving mosquito abatement services from SLCMAD. However, the taxing boundaries of SLCMAD have remained the same as in 1923. This boundary adjustment will allow SLCMAD's service boundaries to include all of the properties within Salt Lake City's limits.

- Board Discussion:

A lengthy discussion was not required because the Salt Lake City Council and SLCMAD Board Members have both previously approved the "Joint Resolution of the SLCMAD and Salt Lake City Declaring an Intent to Adjust Common Boundaries." The required public notices and 60-day waiting period have sufficiently been met.

- Public Comments:

There were no public comments.

3. Adjourn:

Trustee Christensen made a motion to adjourn the 2017 Joint Notice of Proposed Boundary Adjustment and Public Hearing. The motion was seconded by Trustee Wilson, unanimously approved, and the meeting adjourned at 6:05 p.m.
